

RSTA's Creative Design Student Earns Full 4 Year Merit Scholarship!

Melissa Grajeda 2013

Cambridge, MA – Melissa Grajeda, a senior at the Cambridge Rindge and Latin School, have been awarded a full scholarship to Lesley University through its partnership with Cambridge Public Schools. The competitive, merit-based scholarships Lesley University College of Art and Design was initiated in 2007 for students meeting rigorous academic criteria, with preference given to students demonstrating a strong design portfolio, commitment to community, and public service.

The Lesley University Cambridge Rindge & Latin Merit based-full year scholarships are for full tuition and fees, along with a book stipend, for four years of study, and are awarded annually through a selection process from a pool of candidates.

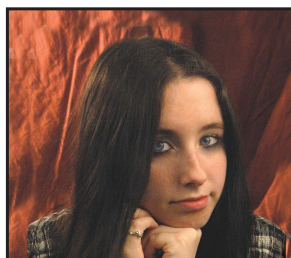

Every year up to two, four-year full tuition merit scholarships are awarded to seniors at Cambridge Rindge and Latin School. Recipients may enroll in either the College of Art and Design or College of Liberal Arts & Professional Studies.

The Principal and guidance team will nominate six students for consideration. Nominations should be in the form of a letter of recommendation. Minimum academic criteria include a 3.3 academic GPA in a strong college prep curriculum, with a combined SAT CR + Math score + SAT WR of at least 1800, or an ACT Composite score of at least 27.

Past Creative Design Student Winners:

Jean Hodges 2009

Angela McKenzie 2011